Sustainability and transferability (maximum of 200 words) Short description on the sustainability and transferability of the practice, including e.g. information on the costs of the practice. Please elaborate on which elements are transferrable and how.	Context: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Given the sensitive and challenging nature of the issues involved, teachers/educators/public-facing groups feel more confident having received appropriate training/awareness-raising to enhance their relative knowledge, understanding and skills.</li> </ul> Exemplar transferability and sustainability: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>All materials and training exemplars can be accessed online free of charge at www.got.uk.net</li> <li>A key element of each project is the development of exemplar lessons by specialist teachers and others linked to complementary resources, including filmed lessons.</li> <li>This approach helps to build knowledge, understanding and the confidence to introduce the programme, all the while fine-tuning content to suit local needs and circumstances.</li> <li>The cost to introduce the programme can be summarised here:</li> </ol>

	Example: 11-14 'challenging extremism' programme a) Exemplar lessons: resources and filmed lessons: available free of charge at www.got.uk.net b) Training: the costs for the school to release teachers to attend a half-day online workshop could be £100 per teacher, though each school may manage this internally without cost. c) The recruitment of a GOT team of up to 5 specialist trainers for a 3-hour workshop could average £1,000. See exemplar secondary programme p.18 here GOT 2 Evaluation 2014.pdf N.B. The development of online training during Covid lockdown has contributed to a marked reduction in training costs, whilst greatly extending the reach of the programme. The cost would be the same for 10 or 100 teachers.
