

10

RAN COLLECTION

LESSONS LEARNED

EXIT

Lesson 1

Establish the goals of the EXIT programme and how these will be measured

Lesson 2

Involve practitioners and consider qualities like respect and empathy

Lesson 3

It may be useful to involve former extremists since they have a deeper understanding

Lesson 4

Build trust and commitment with the individual and use group discussions to enhance social skills

Lesson 5

Make a distinction between these types of militant activists:

Ideological activists

Drifters and followers

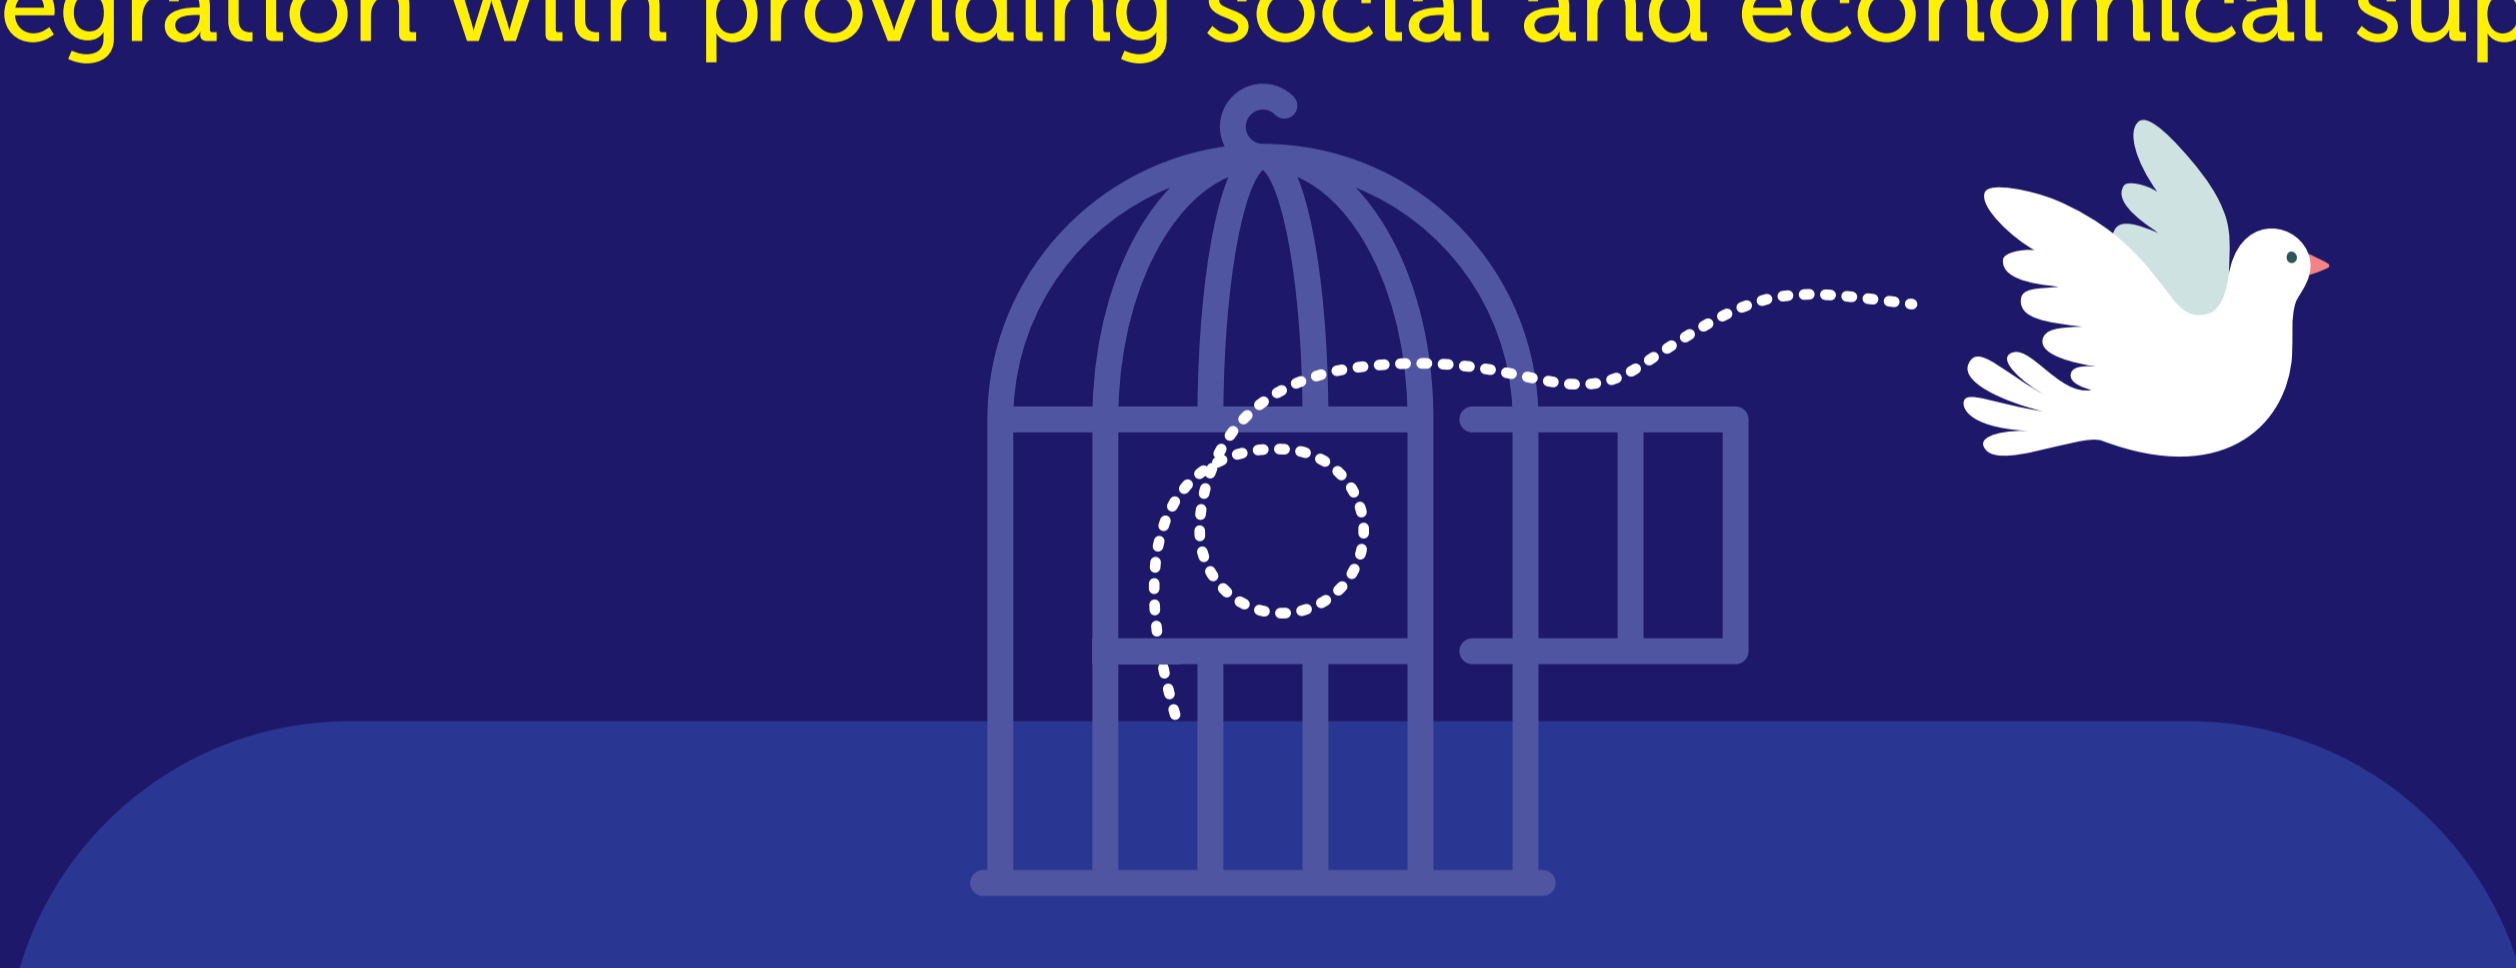

Adventurers

Angry and frustrated misfits

Lesson 6

Think about after-care and have a strategy in place for reintegration with providing social and economical support

Lesson 7

Select mentors and other actors carefully, based on individual context

Lesson 8

Consider the involvement of NGOs they may achieve better access and have better opportunities to develop trustful relationships with the clients

Lesson 9

Involve governmental agencies to ensure sufficient funding, resources, and direct access to decision-making processes

Lesson 10

Consider if addressing ideology in exit counselling is appropriate for your case, otherwise, it could be counter-productive

Inspiring practices

Cooperation of prison service and probation
Back on Track (DK)

Involvement of former extremists
Exit Sweden (Sweden)

Involvement of experts from various fields
EXIT-Deutschland (Germany)