

Pledges submitted by the Member States for 2023

17 Member States pledged more than 29 000 places for resettlement and humanitarian admission combined (of which more than 13 000 places for Afghans at risk). Member States are expected to implement these pledges in the course of 2023. EU financial support from the Asylum, Migration and Integration Fund will be made available to the Member States to underpin their efforts.
