Name of the practice Please note that by practice we mean an activity/method/tool that has been used or is in use by professionals and/or community members.	Back on Track
Description (max. 300 words) Short description of the aim and working method of the practice. Please note that in this description, it must be clear that there is an explicit connection to preventing and/or countering radicalisation and/or violent extremism. This means that in the aims and/or the activities/methods/tools of the practice, there is a link to preventing and countering radicalisation and/or violent extremism. Practices without this link cannot be included in the RAN Collection.	This programme is designed for inmates and remand prisoners charged with or convicted of terrorism and/or inmates vulnerable to radicalisation. The aim is to help the inmates — though the intervention of mentors — to improve their capacity to tackle everyday situations, problems and conflicts by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – motivating inmates to opt for a lifestyle free of crime; – involving the inmates' network outside prison (family, friends etc.); – assisting inmates with concrete challenges related to release (finding a home, work, etc.). An important part of Back on Track is also training mentors to strengthen their competencies in various dialogue techniques as well as in their coaching and conflict management skills. Mentor coaches will support and supervise mentors throughout their work.
